Dr. ESENJEEB WONDERFUL RING.

GOOD morning, Gentlemen? Do you MR. J. WALKEI wish to prevent preparate death from MAY AUTING MAY diseases, then ask at once for ERENJER'S SILVA RESIGNED). Wonderful Ring? It cures Coughs, Colde, Asthma, Bronchitis, Piles, Liver Complaints within a short period, and rapidly cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Spasms, Colic, Palpitation, Hysteria, and it keeps the blood free from all diseases by putting it only on the finger of the left hand. I can strongly state as a means of present in strongly state as a means of preserving and restoring health it is unequalled, as it has been used by several Kuropean Ladies. and Gentlemen with great success, for INDO-CHINA STEAM NAVIGATION which I hold several unsolicited testimonials. It is the most wonderful discovery of the day. I have no hesitation in stating before the public that all households should not be without it; and its price is also very little, only Ra. 1/8 including packing and postage, &c. Dozen Rs. 12/-; & dozon Rs. 7/8-. Apply to

Ter thiof or thieves who burglariously

entered Union Church last night and feloniously away took about £80-worth of metal pipes from the Church organ performed what is probably a unique feat in the history of Chinese thieving. If this kind of 'performance on the organ' is likely to be repeated, either in Union Church or elacwhere, and we know that there is frequently a boom in particular kinds of thieving in the Colony-it will be necessary to have the King of Instruments located in a burglar-proof case, as it would be almost impossible to make a church building itself here quite burglar-proof. The theft is pertainly a peculiar one; and although it is a well-known fact that there is hardly anything that a Chinese thief will not steal, or try to steal, one might reasonably have supposed that the line could be drawn at a church organ. Some time ago a thief went into the Supreme Court with a ladder, while the Court was sitting, and took away the clock-everybody present watch- Fishing Company. One of the T. A similar motive may have prompted the man who tried to carry away a public drinking-fountain. The thieves who used to regularly remove every new covering of lead as it was put on the roof of Victoria College no doubt scratch four boat-race over the Regatte regarded this as a safe and lucrative branch of industry not likely to be affected | the crews :-by waves of financial depression or anything else. But what the organ-pipe R. F. Lammert (stroke), M. Friedrichs thief's idea was, it is difficult to guess. It would appear, however, that he must have had some ulterior idea beyond (cox). the mere acquisition of the metal, for although the value of the pipes in their proper place was considerable, the thief would hardly find them worth the trouble which it would cost him to remove them, or worth the risk of discovery which he would run owing to the peculiar character of the plunder. It is hardly likely that he had any intention of setting up an organ for himself, although his operations almost imply a knowledge of the connoble instrument and might suggest that he had acquired a taste for its music. The fact that he left as much of the organ as will admit are replaced is one from which the congregation may be able to derive some little consolation, but it is hardly one that could be used in mitigation of punishment if ever the thief is brought to justice—as we sincerely hope he will be:

Her only equipment is a considerable amount of self-confidence, and some pretty skill at billiards. So what does she do but challenge the champion to a public match at the Royal Aquarium? Here we of the tale; she does not cause her heroine to make a thousand break, or even to beat the champion, though owing to his forbearance she does make a match with him and so gains her object in any amount of notoriety. Nevertheless we must protest against the publication of a story of this kind. Some silly girl who thinks herself like the heroine is sure to want to imitate her. The so-called lady cricketers were bad enough: but professional lady billiardplayers would be worse. Not that billiards is in itself by any means an unsuitable game for a woman. On the contrary, it s far more suitable than ericket, requiring as it does the minimum of strength and the utmost delicacy of touch. But even now, when the game has to a great extent lost its former bad reputation, the atmosphere of the billiard-room -the professional billiard-room, we meana good deal less healthy in every sonse of the word than that of the cricketfield. night the ladies of our town were rather scared, in fact the whole community felt for from comfortable, as our lives had been threatened by the Natives. We have no volunteers here, so we could not call them out, and the strength of our police force is 9 with the tail out off. We had to appeal to the Chinese Authorities and 150 soldiers were sent from the forte for our protection. The row took plane on account of a quarrel between two Chinese carpenters the carpenter belonging to the Taku Tug and Lighter Company, and Toozer, a Native carpenter living in Taku. It appears that a mast of one of the pilot boats had been broken, and Toozer was sent for and arrangements made with him to have the damage made good, but as he did not do the work in the required time, the carpenter of the Taku Tug and Lighter Company was sent for, and it was arranged that he had to do the work. Toozer heard of this and he mustered a gang of men und armed them with swords and other weapons; these came upon the Taku Tug and Lighter Co's carpenter, and immediately commensed to make mineement of him, for the poor fellow is pretty well backed. Not satisfied with this, they threatened to kill all the Foreigners in Taku, and this was to take place last night, but on account of the resence of the soldiers nothing occurred. There was a scare. I assure you, except with one or two, who were armed with Dutch courage. The natives around here have not been very friendly since a member of our community attempted to start a L. 'FRAGRANT WATER' MURMUR That it is to be regretted the feeling of our friends in Shanghal should have been wounded by mere want of tast.

That His Excellency the Governor must be credited with the intention to do the right thing and the kind thing in a graceful manner, but he cannot, in this instance of the Bokhara meeting, be said to have carried out his intention with very much that the regret over this matter is intensified, inasmuch as Shanghai has evidently felt the slight keenly, and felt it naturally in proportion to the sincerity and depth of its sympathy.

That I feel cure, at the same time, that no slight was ever intended to be given to Shanghai, and that this view will in time gain favour in the Model Settlement

That the people in Shanghai bave been accustomed to manage their own affairs, and have shown themselves to be pastmusters in that urt; while here in Hongkong we are still in leading-strings, and the strings are composed mostly of tough

That it would be interesting -albeit somewhat hazardous in a Crown Colony-to raise a discussion as to how a Governor could most effectively get in touch with the community whom he is sent to govern. That one of the greatest helps in the attainment of this desired object is the possession of a Colonial Secretary who knows

Maxim Gun Volunteer Corps. That much has been said and written about the scheme elaborated by the Special Committee for the enrelment of a new Volunteer Corps upon a large scale.

That apart from the question, already raised in this column, of adding to the large military contribution paid by this Colony any sum whatever for volunteers, the amount proposed to be expended on the new Corps was much too heavy.

That as I hear the Governor stipulates that at least 150 Volunteers shall have promised in writing to join the Corps by the end of the year, the scheme-even in its -modified form-has little chance of ano-

That, assuming this is the prospect, it may occur to one or other of the members of the Finance Committee to inquire what has been or is to be done with our expensive armament of Maxim guns, and whether the harness thereto belonging has been kept soft and pliable up to date. That a wag suggests the Maxim Committee has exercised a minimum effect upon the Government, and therefore the members propose to resign.

That the true cause of the want of success of a hig Volunteer movement here is, that the nesessity for such a body is not generally recognized.

That the payment of a large som out of Colonial funds for valuntaering, even were the men forthcoming, might be seriously and not unreasonably questioned, without imperilling the reputation for staunch loyalty of those who questioned such expenditure. That additional facilities given to the prosent Artillery Corps will perhaps, after all, be the practical outcome of all the prolonged discussion. That the publication of two native petitions

They are all lies and you are the cause of it. You are too flossy. Get out of my sight before I kill you. Take your money and leave the country at once,

I knew where the trouble was, but would not let me explain that nothing wrong was intended. Nothing but my blood or resignation would satisfy him, so I chose the latter too quick. I drew the St. NORTHERN PACIFIC STEAMSHIP due me and went on a still hunt for that reporter. I met him over on Queer street taking notes on a dog fight. He had the same expression with him but he did not remember me. I couldn't make him understand that it was through his funny business that I had got fired. He didn't know me from a crow. He explains as follows: 'Up to October, 1885,' he says, I was a strong, healthy man, and equal to any kind of work. At this time I was taken with a pain that seemed to shoot straight through my heart. I falt as if something was squeezing my heart, and I was in dreadful agony. I had to abandon work and lie up. Then I fell into a low, weak way. I had no appetite, and every morael I ste; gave me a great pain at the chest and a tight, uncomfortable feeling as if all my food turned to wind and did not pass my stomach. I had a great pain at my back and sides, and was never free from pain night or day. Such food as I was able to take lay like a load on my stemach, and my heart would thump so badly could get in sleep, and night after night I would lie awake.

'I became that weak I dare not lift the lightest article, and so nervous that the slightest sound. startled me. Even the children's noise at play agest me. When I ventured out of doors I had to often stand and rest, and my legs were a unsteady I could not walk straight. All this told on say spirits, for before my attack I scarcely knew my strength. I could lift a sack of flour

'I went to our doctor, who said mine was a bad case. He gave me medicines, but I g t no relief from them. Now better, now worse, but never well, I remained in this state for over twelve months, and was under the doctor all that time. At last the doctor recommended me to go to Norwich Hospital and put myself under a celebrated physician there as an indoor patient, I did so in November, 1886. The physician said, "Your heart is strained and very weak." Whilst in the hospital I was examined by three doctors, and after being under treatment
